Greetings!

We are pleased that you have agreed to be Service Leader. Enclosed is information you need to prepare, including a list of roles and responsibilities and a copy of the service leader script.

There will be a guest in our pulpit on your Sunday, so your Service Leader role will be enhanced a little. A guest may have questions about how we do things in our service. Contact the guest several weeks in advance and be prepared to answer their questions, as well as to discuss how to handle the Call to Celebration and to make any other planning decisions. Explain to the guest that you will be their host while they are at FUUSA, and plan to be here to welcome them at the arrival time they choose, usually at least 30 minutes before the service starts.

Carefully review the checklist and the Service Leader script carefully prior to the Sunday service so that you will be well prepared to perform your role.

If you have any questions, please email or call the chair of the Religious Services Committee, Irene Saulsbery (ifsaul@yahoo.com; 588-6544.)

If you find that you are unable to be the Service Leader on the date assigned, notify the Religious Services Chair and the FUUSA office immediately so that we can find a replacement for you promptly.

Sincerely,

Irene Saulsbery and Religious Services Committee

SERVICE LEADER PREPARATION (with Guest in pulpit)

General Roles and Responsibilities of a Service Leader

Please contact the guest minister/speaker at least two weeks in advance of the Service to begin to plan/assist in preparation for the service. This assistance may include selection of hymns or other music, a story for all ages, or readings. If you would like to participate in the ministry, you are encouraged to come up with the Call to Celebration--you can either write a couple of paragraphs tying your own experience to the sermon topic, find a poem/paragraph, or find something in the readings at the back of the hymnal. Note: This must be limited to 2 minutes - time it beforehand. If you prefer, the guest will choose the words for you to read.

The way to start is to phone the guest minister/speaker (Religious Services Committee chair will give you the contact info) and talk it through with him/her. Remember, you are an integral part of the Service.

Your tasks before Sunday

--Contact guest minister/speaker:

Make sure they have received Order of Service template.

Discuss how to handle the Call to Celebration and to make any other planning decisions.

Let them know if the children will be in the service, and who will be doing the story (Leah Purcell or guest) and give them Leah's contact info.

Make sure they are in communication with Music Director/other musician.

Make sure they know to send Order of Service details to Amy Lent by Wednesday and have her contact info.

Find out what time on Sunday they plan to arrive, and tell them you will be here to welcome them and show them around.

--Prepare Call to Celebration.

--Practice the Service Leader script.

--Call the FUUSA office on Friday if you would like a pdf of the final Order of Service.

--Promptly respond to e-mails and requests from the Religious Services Chair or Rev. Sam relating to Service Leader duties.

--Give the guest this list of contacts:

Leah Purcell	Director of Religious Education	dre@albanyuu.org	518-463-7135
Matt Edwards	Music Director	mge01@yahoo.com	518-692-8306
Amy Lent	Director of Member Services and Communications	alent@albanyuu.org	518-463-7135

SUNDAY CHECKLIST

1. Arrive at the church at the time you and the guest have agreed upon. Show them to Sam's office and give them an Order of Service.
2. Show them rest rooms, Emerson Community Hall or Sanctuary, Channing Hall.

3. Meet with the guest: go over the Order of Service, ensuring that each knows the timing and their duties during the Service.
4. The Chalice Lighter's* name and bio will be on a piece of blue paper in the pulpit. If it is not there ask Leah Purcell for it. Read over the child's bio.
5. Write in your script: name of chalice lighter, name of the front and balcony ushers.
6. Review the order of service. Be sure you see where to stop to let latecomers in.
7. Light a candle from which the Chalice will be lit. (In Emerson--a tea light. In Sanctuary—one of the Joys candles.)
8. Be sure there's a glass of water on the pulpit for the minister.
9. Be sure the PA system is on and ready: Custodian Hadiya Wilbron will take care of this--just check it. If it's not on, find Hadiya for help.
10. Do a sound check with the guest. Be sure they know they must speak into a microphone the whole time, both for the sake of those using hearing assist devices and the recording of the service.
11. Be sure you have a hymnal/s available when you return to a seat in the pews. You may be able to share with the announcer.

* When the children are in Children's Chapel, usually the first Sunday of the month, you will be the Chalice Lighter. There also will not be a children's story.
